GM Rejects Fact-Finders' Report

General Motors President Says Company Offer "Still Stands"

Wilson Declares Panel's Wage Increase Proposal Is "Unsound"

INDICATIONS POINT TO UNION ACCEPTANCE

Recommendation Is Based on Assumed Ability To Pay, Firm Says

DETROIT, Jan. 11 (AP) — General Motors Corporation today announced that the report of the presidential fact-finding committee on proposed GM wages was not acceptable to it. The announcement was signed by C. E. Wilson, company president.

The corporation announcement said the fact-finders' recommendations for a nineteen and one-half cents an hour wage increase and the reinstatement of its contract with the CIO-United Automobile Workers was unacceptable "in whole or in part, as a basis for settling the UAW-CIO strike of General Motors plants."

"General Motors," Wilson's statement declared, "has rejected the unsound principle that a specific company should be forced to pay higher than competitive wages because of its financial ability."

The GM president said the company's latest offer of thirteen and one-half cents per hour or $1.08 per day, made after the strike began fifty-one days ago, "still stands."

"The government has stated that living costs are up thirty-three per cent over 1941," he continued. "Our offer, when combined with other increases made since January 1941, full compensation for this accepted increase in the cost of living, and would raise the average employee's rate of pay more than thirty-three per cent over what it was in January 1941."

Wilson said the presidential board's recommendation of an additional six cents an hour raise "is based on certain assumptions by which it is the opinion of General Motors are unsound."

"The board," he said, "tried to justify this amount in part by previous take-home pay arguments. Actually, the recommendation is based on the assumed ability of General Motors to pay this excess" (Continued on Page 8, Col. 3)

Farm Bureau Favors State Income Tax Rate of Two Per Cent

BALTIMORE, Jan. 11 (AP) — The Maryland Farm Bureau urged today the restoration of the state income tax rates to two per cent for ordinary incomes and five per cent for investment incomes.

The farm bureau's view was stated in a resolution adopted at the closing session of a four-day conference which drew more than 5,000 agriculturists to the city.

An adequate state surplus may be built up during prosperous years to insure governmental functions in years of business depression," the bureau said in recommending the income tax revision.

A comprehensive report of a joint committee of the State Grange and the bureau, headed by D. G. Harry, of Harford county, was adopted by the conference. The report recommended economy in government and equalization of property assessments.

MacArthur's Command "Remains Undiminished," Patterson Declares

TOKYO, Jan. 11 (AP) — Secretary of War Patterson assured Allied newsmen today that Gen. MacArthur's command "remains undiminished" under the new four-power control setup for Japan, and said he did not believe Emperor Hirohito's war responsibility was such as to require his abdication.

The Japanese cabinet meanwhile decided, after an all-day conference, that aged Premier Kijuro Shidehara should remain in office pending attempts to solve by reorganization the crisis touched off by MacArthur's January 4 political purge.

Sources close to the government said several ministers submitted their resignations during the day's session, and Kyodo news agency reported that one of these was Home Minister Zenjirō Horikiri. Kyodo also reported that Education Minis-

Army, Navy Plan To Consolidate Many Activities

Throng Crowds Church for Slain Child's Funeral

WASHINGTON, Jan. 11 (AP) — Secretary of Navy Forrestal disclosed today that the army and navy, in advance of any eventual merger, are jointly whipping into shape plans to mesh more than a score of activities.

Detailed arrangements, he said, have been worked out by army and navy planning groups and are now ready for consideration by top command.

Among major projects are consolidation of the army's air transport service and the naval air transport service, establishment of a joint intelligence service and common use of shipping and port facilities.

Forrestal made disclosures at a news conference, in which Adm. Chester W. Nimitz, chief of naval operations, and all of Nimitz's deputies participated.

The 36-year-old parents, Father Donahue continued, have "only a prayer for you mothers and fathers and the people throughout this nation, who have been so kind, that you may be spared any tragedy such as theirs." He continued:

"We pay tribute to a mother and father upon whom the heavy hand of sorrow has fallen. We pray that that faith they have professed will sustain them now."

"With that same faith they will go through this life knowing that truly their daughter will enjoy everlasting bliss in heaven."

Father Donahue, life-long friend of Suzanne's father, comforted the bereaved couple with a reference to the church service, a white and gold "Mass of the Angels" for the pudgy, golden-haired lass who only a few days ago was impersonating an angel in a school Christmas play.

"The motif of this mass," he said, "was not one of sorrow or despair. The motif was a song of peace because another child — another angel — was admitted to their group to sing forever before the throne of God."

Three other priests celebrated the votive mass, devoid of all funeral black and other symbolism of death and reserved for last rites of children under seven. Catholic doctrine maintains that a child dying before that age is incapable of choosing between right and wrong, thereby incapable of committing sin, and its soul ascends to heaven.

White-faced and trudging like sleepwalkers, the grieving mother and father went to the side of the grave and looked at the small white casket, a cross of pink camellias and forget-me-nots on its lid.

Throughout the church and burial services they restrained their emotions courageously. Degnan, however, broke down momentarily at the grave when the Rt. Rev. Msgr. J. Gerald Kealy, pastor of St. Gertrude's, sprinkled holy water on the casket and intoned:

Moore Rites Are Held At Havre de Grace

HAVRE DE GRACE, Md., Jan. 11 (AP) — Funeral services were conducted at St. Patrick's Catholic church at 10 a. m. today for Maryland Delegate Leo M. Moore, who died of a heart attack Tuesday morning at his home here.

A solemn high requiem mass was sung by the Rev. M. J. Flinnerty, pastor of St. Patrick's. The Rev. William M. Canning, pastor of St. James church, Mt. Ranier, was deacon and delivered the sermon. The Rev. Leo H. Sponar was subdeacon.

Attending the services were Gov. O'Connor, State Comptroller Miller Tawes and members of the Maryland Legislature, where Moore had served for twelve years.

Efforts To Halt Spreading Phone Shutdown Fail

Meetings Will Be Resumed Today with Schwellenbach Siting In

WASHINGTON, Jan. 11 (AP) — The government conciliation service failed tonight to halt a progressive tie-up of the nation's long distance telephone service and recessed its efforts until tomorrow.

Howard T. Colvin, assistance chief of the service, reported that meetings would be resumed with Secretary of Labor Schwellenbach sitting in at 10:00 a. m. (EST) tomorrow.

"There was no progress in the way of a settlement," Colvin said, "but it helped to clarify the picture some."

"As I see the picture," he continued, "there isn't any reason why they shouldn't be able to compose their differences. They should be able to do it tomorrow. Whether they will, of course, is another matter."

Colvin referred to officials of the Western Electric Company and the Association of Communications Equipment Workers.

Union pickets surrounded telephone exchanges throughout the country today and telephone operators have in many instances refused to cross the picket lines.

Joseph Beirne, president of the National Federation of Telephone Workers, sat in on tonight's meeting but Colvin said he did not participate.

"No Change" Is Reported

Ernest Weaver, president of the CIO, told reporters that the Labor department's "efforts would continue tomorrow but Weaver would not indicate the probable outcome of the meeting.

J. P. Safferty, labor relations manager for Western Electric, told newsmen after the three-hour meeting that "there is no change in the situation at all."

Both Weaver and Beirne declared in response to questions that the workers they represented would go back to their jobs if the government seized the Western Electric Company or the telephone company.

Meanwhile a high government official said that plans for seizure of the telephone industry, should seizure become necessary, still were being formulated and the "method of approach" had not yet been determined.

The official, who declined to be quoted by name, said several conferences had been held during the day but that the government would step in "only if communications deteriorate to the point where such action becomes necessary."

This point, he indicated, had not yet been reached but the government

Army Cuts Training Period for Overseas Replacements; AAF Will Release Long-Service Men

WASHINGTON, Jan. 11 (AP) — The army and navy agreed today to send Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower and Adm. Chester W. Nimitz to a Senate-House meeting Tuesday in the demobilization furor.

The army reacted, too, by cutting the training period for troops to replace veterans overseas and deciding to let some long servicemen out of the air force regardless of the need for specially-qualified personnel.

The Army Times, unofficial service publication, reported that Eisenhowers orders to all army commands against giving basic and other elemental training to combat veterans.

The newspaper quoted him as saying that "a schedule prepared primarily to keep such men busy for the required number of hours has no place in the army." Some veterans have complained they are compelled to undergo basic training repeatedly as a make-work device.

Congressmen hit on the idea of a joint session this morning. By mid-afternoon the appearance of the army chief of staff and the navy chief operations was settled.

A senator who didn't want his name used said the arrangements had the full support of President Truman.

Congress held a joint session last September to hear Gen. George C. Marshall, then army chief of staff, on demobilization. That served to�� some of the complaints about the slowness of discharges at that time.

Inquiry Will Go Ahead

But Sen. Edwin C. Johnson (D-Colo), chairman of a Senate Military subcommittee named to look into the discharge problem, told a reporter:

"The joint session won't eliminate a need for a thorough investigation. We are after a lot of details and will go ahead with our inquiry."

A member of the full Military Committee, Sen. Kilgore (D-Wyo), predicted that discharge "inequalities will be adjusted in the immediate future." In an interview at Fairmont, W. Va., Kilgore attributed demobilization troubles to the army's making "many more promises than it was able to handle."

Lescot's cabinet resigned yesterday.

Thousands of persons, singing and beating huge native drums, swarmed the streets of the capital this afternoon.

The three-man military junta was placed in power when 5,000 government troops joined the popular movement.

The army ordered the training of replacement troops cut from seventeen to thirteen weeks. That will

Groundhog Lodge Offers To Turn Over Weather Forecasting "Secrets" to UNO

QUARRYVILLE, Pa., Jan. 11 (AP) — The United Nations Organization will be granted the "secret forecasting system" of the Slumbering Lodge of Groundhogs if it uses the system for "peace purposes only."

Charles F. Hess, hibernating governor of the lodge which is preparing for its annual groundhog observing ritual February 2, said UNO could settle its "troubles in selecting a site for the United Nations capitol" if the capitol were set up in this Eastern Pennsylvania section.

"That" said Hess, "is a tremendous concession made in the interests of world peace and harmony."

Hess disclosed that Gen. Douglas MacArthur and Dwight Eisenhower have been elected to honorary membership in the lodge.

Essex firemen and policemen working with coast guards, raised the plane sufficiently to see into the cockpit but saw no sign of bodies. Earlier grappling and dragging had turned up a flyer's helmet and a pair of goggles, but no other clues.

WASHINGTON PHONE OPERATORS LEAVE BOARDS

BEGINNINGS OF A TELEPHONE STRIKE that may silence the nation's lines were seen in this picture of Washington, D. C., operators walking out of the main exchange of the Chesapeake and Potowmack Company to attend a "continuous meeting" in which some 3,000 operators gathered in a local arena.

Their departure left service on dial panels only. Maintenance men had earlier walked out in many cities.

Submarine, Cruiser Collide in Heavy Fog

WASHINGTON, Jan. 11 (AP) — The navy disclosed tonight that the submarine Argonaut and the cruiser Honolulu had collided early this week in a heavy fog off the Atlantic coast between New York and Philadelphia.

The navy said there were one casualty. Ship Fitter Third Class Earl D. Johnson, Rockford, Ill., attached to the Honolulu, who was killed.

Both ships sustained minor damage the navy said.

The Argonaut, stove in by the bow, returned to Portsmouth, N. H. The Honolulu, with two compartments flooded, put into Philadelphia, Pa.

Five Top Nazis Are Named as Visitors To Horror Camp

By JAMES F. KING

NUERNBERG, Germany, Jan. 11 (AP) — Czech doctor who spent four years at Dachau told the international tribunal trying twenty-two Nazis today that five of the defendants had visited the notorious concentration camp and he dramatically pointed out four of them.

The reaction was swift. Wilhelm Frick, former minister of the interior and one of the men pointed to in the discharge problem, told a reporter:

Another defendant pointed out by Dr. Blaha was Alfred Rosenberg, Nazi party philosopher. Rosenberg sat with a smug snarl on his face.

The presiding justice told the lawyers that all defendants would get an opportunity to present their cases but they would have to wait their turn.

Greece Receives Loan And Warning from U. S.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 11 (AP) — Hungry Greece today obtained a $25,000,000 loan from the United States.

Along with it she received a stern admonition that she must put her house in order—economically and politically—immediately if she hopes for additional help.

Acting Secretary of State Dean Acheson, in announcing approval of the loan by the export-import bank, declared that the Greek internal situation is deteriorating very rapidly.

Army, Navy Plan To Consolidate Many Activities

Throng Crowds Church for Slain Child's Funeral

WASHINGTON, Jan. 11 (AP) — Secretary of Navy Forrestal disclosed today that the army and navy, in advance of any eventual merger, are jointly whipping into shape plans to mesh more than a score of activities.

Detailed arrangements, he said, have been worked out by army and navy planning groups and are now ready for consideration by top commanders.

Forrestal made disclosures at a news conference, in which Adm. Chester W. Nimitz, chief of naval operations, and all of Nimitz's deputies participated.

The plan was described by these officials as aimed at accomplishing the major goals of an army and navy consolidation, by "building from the group up instead of the penthouse down."

Nimitz said the list of activities to be integrated undoubtedly will be enlarged "as problems of common interest develop."

The work, Forrestal said, was the outgrowth of a conference held several weeks ago with Secretary of War Patterson, Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower, army chief of staff, and Nimitz.

Other subjects on which agreements have already been reached by the planners, Forrestal said, include:

GI Being Shipped Overseas Now Is Eligible for VFW

By BEATRICE FAIRFAX
Famous Authority on Problems of Love and Marriage

Dear Miss Fairfax:

My son is just being shipped overseas with the army, and we want to know if he would be eligible for membership in the Veterans of Foreign Wars. His father is a veteran of the last World War.

(MRS.) J. T. E.

That organization has announced that veterans whose overseas service began on or after September 2, 1945, will be eligible for membership until such time as Congress has officially declared the war is at an end.

Number of Nazi Casualties

Dear Miss Fairfax:

Are there any figures on the number of Nazi servicemen killed or wounded in this war?

N. C.

German sources of information estimated 6,400,000 German servicemen were killed or "permanently wounded" in the war and 880,000 German civilians were killed or injured up to May, 1945.

USAFI Courses for Servicemen

Dear Miss Fairfax:

Who is eligible for the educational opportunities offered by the United States Armed Forces Institute? Are the men in the coast guard entitled to these courses?

D. T. S.

The institute brings off-duty educational opportunity to men and women in the army, the navy, marine corps and coast guard. Both officers and enlisted men may enroll. It is suggested that an interested party consult his chaplain or librarian to find out whether there is a class already formed in his outfit. Men in the coast guard may write to the Bureau of Naval Personnel, Attention: Educational Services Section, Navy Department, Washington 25, D. C.

Parts of Three States Face Power Blackout

NORFOLK, Va., Jan. 11 (AP)—Portions of three states served by the Virginia Electric and Power Company tonight faced the threat of an electric power blackout as the result of a strike called for January 25 by 300 of the company's gas and electrical workers in the Norfolk area.

B. M. Moreland, financial secretary of Local 9980, International Brotherhood of Electrical Workers, said today it was his "firm belief the strike will spread to the entire state of Virginia and to parts of Eastern North Carolina and Eastern West Virginia."

Paul E. Harris, local secretary, said if the strike should spread throughout the company's system in Virginia, about 1,900 union workers would be affected. He added, however, that "union members have volunteered to work without compensation at power stations to produce power necessary for hospitals and for public health and safety."

Joint Potomac River Oyster Fisheries Group Is Proposed

BALTIMORE, Jan. 11 (AP)—Creation of a permanent joint commission to regulate all aspects of Potomac river oyster fisheries was recommended today for proposal to the Maryland and Virginia Legislatures by the Chesapeake section of the Atlantic States Marine Fisheries Commission, officials of the group announced.

The recommendation was the result of more than two years of consideration, including ten joint meetings since April 8, 1943, by the six commissioners representing the two states, the announcement said.

The proposal would amend the compact of 1785 which still governs the relations of the two states in their common jurisdiction over Potomac fisheries, or, if that proved impractical, would accomplish the same ends by concurrent statutes.

GI Being Shipped Overseas Now Is Eligible for VFW

By BEATRICE FAIRFAX
Famous Authority on Problems of Love and Marriage

Dear Miss Fairfax:

My son is just being shipped overseas with the army, and we want to know if he would be eligible for membership in the Veterans of Foreign Wars. His father is a veteran of the last World War.

(MRS.) J. T. E.

That organization has announced that veterans whose overseas service began on or after September 2, 1945, will be eligible for membership until such time as Congress has officially declared the war is at an end.

Number of Nazi Casualties

Dear Miss Fairfax:

Are there any figures on the number of Nazi servicemen killed or wounded in this war?

N. C.

German sources of information estimate 8,400,000 German servicemen were killed or "permanently wounded" in the war and 980,000 German civilians were killed or injured up to May, 1945.

USAFI Courses For Servicemen

Dear Miss Fairfax:

Who is eligible for the educational opportunities offered by the United States Armed Forces Institute? Are the men in the coast guard entitled to these courses?

D. T. S.

The institute brings off-duty educational opportunity to men and women in the army, navy, marine corps and coast guard. Both officers and enlisted men may enroll. It is suggested that an interested party consult his chaplain or librarian to find out whether there is a class already formed in his outfit. Men in the coast guard may write to the Bureau of Naval Personnel, Attention: Educational Services Section, Navy Department, Washington 25, D. C.

Refund of Allowment Deductions

Dear Miss Fairfax:

I'm a discharged army veteran. Two months before my discharge I canceled my civilian life insurance policy on which I was paying premiums through a class "E" allotment. Through an error, the Office of Dependency Benefits was not notified when I dropped the policy, so allotment deductions continued to be taken from my pay. How can I get a refund from the ODB for these deductions?

C. K.

Since you are out of the army, this problem is not handled by the Office of Dependency Benefits. Write to the Army Central Adjustment Office, 4300 Goodfellow Avenue, St. Louis, Mo.

Beneficiary Is Not Released

Dear Miss Fairfax:

My brother tells me he has changed the beneficiary on his national service life insurance, but does not say to whom this insurance is now payable. As he is overseas, would it be possible for me to find

A Drafting Excuse Not Well Founded

IT IS NOT up to this Republican newspaper, of course, to advise Governor O'Connor about the manner in which he should conduct his campaign for the federal senatorial nomination, but it cannot refrain from commenting upon the governor's brick with a prayer that it boldly broadcast recommendation might conk Goebels or Hitler. That William Curran, Baltimore city American correspondents thought Democratic boss, was "drafted" for the story had an element of humor in it which might afford a weary world a moment of relief, but the London censor killed the yarn. William C. Walsh, resigned. This is that the governor has made another blunder, however valuable the gesture toward Mr. Curran might prove to an American correspondent. "Why my dear fellow, old boy," he said, "you must city votes. This newspaper said the Royal something to that effect when Mr. Air Force does not—simply does not—throw things."

The correspondent was relieved to know that he was not accused of trying to give aid and comfort to the enemy, but he still fails to see the difference between throwing a block-buster and throwing a brick.

The late war may yet produce further evidence to show that men

"Baltimore Sun." When the governor appointed Mr. Curran to succeed Mr. Walsh, he declared that

Mr. Curran in advising him of his acceptance of the post had "announced that he will not be a candidate for election in 1946, as he desires merely to serve out the unexpired portion of the present term." The general recollection is that the governor was correct in so far political machinery into the position, and a number of others expressed themselves similarly.

Two rather strange discrepancies are notable in connection with this drafting business. One has already been pointed out by Mr. Louis J. O'Donnell, political writer of the "Baltimore Sun." When the governor appointed Mr. Curran to succeed Mr. Walsh, he declared that

Mr. Curran in advising him of his acceptance of the post had "announced that he will not be a candidate for election in 1946, as he desires merely to serve out the unexpired portion of the present term." Veterans Deserve
Clothing Break

ONE of the problems that plagues nearly every returning veteran is that of finding clothes to wear. A that the governor was correct in so far political machinery into the position, and a number of others expressed themselves similarly.

This is a tough assignment for the veterans at a time when men's suits, shirts, shorts and overcoats are all hard to find. To help them out, the Civilian Production Administration has asked all retail merchants to set aside supplies of scarce clothing for exclusive sale to veterans.

The reasons for giving the returning veterans preference are too clear-cut to be ignored. They would deserve first consideration in any case as veterans and their need of clothing is far greater on the average, than that of civilians who stayed at home. And, since the veterans of to-day are the customers of tomorrow, it is also good business to make a fact. When Mr. Walsh resigned as attorney general, he took pains to point out that all the major work of the office which had been considerably implemented by the war emergency had been rounded out, that there remained scarcely anything to do except according to the intimation implied in what possibly could be done for the most part by the assistants in the office, for which reason along with the beckoning of private affairs and estate responsibilities he could and should clear out. Since the title of nothing has been heard about the office or the work of the attorney general, it has lapsed into the condition of innocuous desuetude made famous by Grover Cleveland, which proves that Mr. Walsh was about right in what he said about it. In fact, the average Marylander in the interim probably could not recall who the attorney general was, which certainly was not the case when Mr. Walsh was in the office. If one were to write a monograph about the governor's extra-agent enigma of the past, he would have General MacArthur in mind.

Our curbside philosopher says he isn't so much interested in the debut of the first robin this year as he is in the farewell appearance of the last penguin of Winter.

When Hirohito said the Japs would proceed unflinchingly toward elimination of misguided practices of the past, did he have General MacArthur in mind?

The problem of the chronic Democratic jobholder in this state is not whether to run for office again, but to decide just what office to run for.

A professional golf player earned $64,324 last year, which shows what can be done by staying in there and swinging.

There is no place on earth for the meddler—and it can be doubted if he wanted anywhere else.

Why not two families in every garage, if automobile production is a thing of the past?

INVESTMENT IN COURTESY

By GEORGE MATTHEW ADAMS

Many a man has started his business career with no other capital than a small loan or a small sum of money saved—Courtesy! And I am of the opinion that Courtesy will be the most valuable as an investment.

The small merchant who puts a high value upon Courtesy will not long remain small. Every day he will be to his good will. Each day will return customers who will enjoy dealing with him and who will voluntarily become his public relations agents. Courtesy travels on fast legs!

But this Courtesy must work both ways. The Customer must enjoy being Courteous, as well as the dealer or merchant. The shopper who has no consideration for the one who waits upon him or her, and the clerk behind the counter who fails to be Courteous, each defeats himself and cheats the other. And the store as well, gets a black eye.

Courtesy among nations is just as important as among individuals. Name calling and false suspicions never made a friend, and have lost many a one. I have learned from actual experience that the biggest men and women are those who are the most Courteous and Kindly. They are easiest of approach and just in their actions.

John Charles Thomas used to end his singing broadcasts with the words "Good Night, Mother," and I believe that we all feel warmer towards an announcer who speaks Courteously over the radio to his guest. I note that this is done after the Kaltenborn news broadcast, when the announcer says, "Good Night, Mr. Kaltenborn."

No one ever lost anything by being Courteous, but everyone loses when he isn't. And it is so easy and pleasant all around, to be Courteous. After a purchase in a store, where you have been treated with the utmost Courtesy, you go away with a warm feeling toward both store and clerk.

Why can't we as individuals keep investing in this valuable commodity, nothing but which pays so much?

The senator is 88 and has been ill for so long as to be unable to answer a call for more than three years although part of that time he was president pro tem of the Senate. He is still officially listed as chairman of its Appropriations committee.

Meanwhile the citizens of Virginia are deprived of their rightful voting representation in the Senate. Apparently they care less about that than for their high esteem for this stalwart American who has served the state and nation in so many places so well and so honorably. Nevertheless, the honors of that service would be enhanced rather than diminished by his resignation from the important position which age and ill health prevent him from filling.

Censorship Mysteries Are Coming to Light

NOW THAT war press censorship has been largely lifted, war correspondents are telling their censorship stories. They obeyed the rules, but sometimes the rules were hard to understand. In his book, "The World Is Their Beat," J. C. Oestreich, I. N. S. foreign editor explains the mystery of the Irish brick.

The story, which the British censor killed, was that an Irish bombardier in the Royal Air Force carried on each mission a brick tied in green ribbon. After he had released his bomb, he would drop from commenting upon the governor's brick with a prayer that it boldly broadcast recommendation might conk Goebels or Hitler.

That William Curran, Baltimore city American correspondents thought Democratic boss, was "drafted" for the story had an element of humor in it which might afford a war which he was appointed by the governor to fill the unexpired term of the London censor killed the yarn.

"I will lift up mine eyes unto the mount. He was thinking of peaks of courage and honor, of faith and virtue, of love and loyalty—all those high peaks which the spirit of man has climbed in every generation and which stand forever beckoning us out of the mud."

Those are the shining peaks which rise far, far above the lowlands of our petty pecces and passions. He was saying to himself—his faulty self—and to all the weak and fumbling world—

"Look up! Forget yourself. You will not find the answers in self pity or anger or hate or grief or anything that lies within the little limits of your flesh. You will only find an answer to your bewilderment if you will lift your eyes to the peaks and think of the things which are above and beyond yourself. Think of the great souls who were perhaps as weak as you and as hurt and as frightened, yet who attacked those peaks out of sheer determination to rise above the trap of their self centered moods.

"Look up—lift up—fight up! Don't take time and don't waste energy on being sorry for yourself, or blaming other people, or even on vain regrets, after you are once decently sorry. Lift up your spirit out of the muck and the quicksands to the truth which the great men before you have traveled step by painful step until they shook themselves free of themselves and their moods and rose to a cleaner, finer life nearer the skies.

"Say this to yourself, my dear, as a prayer—as a vow—

"I will lift up mine eyes unto the hills. Out of Your mercy, God, stretch down Your hand and help Your frightened, wayward child."

LISTEN WORLD

By ELSIE ROBINSON
(Registered U. S. Patent Office)

LIFT UP YOUR EYES

Yes, peace has come— theoretically. But never has the world known more bitterness and bewilderment. And that bitterness and bewilderment invade your life whether you fought overseas or not.

Those "blackout" moods come perhaps more poignantly to those who live on high tension. But to each of us, regardless of temperament or position, they bring despair. Those times when everything seems to fail you . . . when your job loses its interest . . . when your friends disappoint you . . . when even your nearest and dearest seem lost and alien . . . such times drain the soul and may leave lasting scars upon your whole life unless you find a way of escape.

For, if you pamper a mood or surrender to it, you perpetuate it. It grows upon you like an addiction. It comes often. It demands more. Presently you are helpless in its ways.

Is there any medicine known to science for these times of depletion. Yet there is a cure which will work and which has worked for thousands of years with every kind of shadowed heart. Science may not recognize it, yet it's infallible. And the chances are, you heard of it often in those days when you went to Sunday school. You will find the prescription back in the Psalms in these few words—

Acts AT ONCE to RELIEVE and 'LOOSEN' BAD COUGHS (CAUSED BY COLDS)

PERTUSSIN—prescribed by thousands of Doctors—is scientifically prepared to act at once—not only to relieve such coughing, but also to prevent pneumonia and make it easier to raise phlegm. It is safe and effective for both old and young. Pleasant tasting! At any druggist. Inexpensive! →PERTUSSIN-

Mrs. Sarah Hinkle Becomes Bride Of William Arrish

Mrs. C. L. Watson, 522 Eastern avenue, announces the marriage of her daughter, Mrs. Sarah Genery Richter Hinkle, to William Arrish, Somersett, Pa.

The wedding ceremony was solemnized December 26 in the parsonage of the Kingsley Methodist church, with headquarters in New York City and a member of Centre Street Methodist church, this city, a graduate of the school.

Two other Centre Street church young women are at present attending the school. They are Miss Georgiana Pearce, 624 Fairview avenue and Miss Winifred Santrock, North Lee street. The former is studying to be a director of religious education in a church and the latter, to be a missionary. Both received scholarships through the WSCS of the Baltimore Conference, on their scholastic standing.

The building program calls for a new library and chapel. A reorganization of the curriculum is in progress, requiring more liberal arts work in addition to the fields of concentration, which include sociology, education, religion and philosophy.

A substantial part of the funds for the new building will be a result of the school's being placed by the Woman's division of the Board of Missions in the Week of Prayer program for 1947.

Market Posts New 15-Year Peak But Number of Pivots Stumble

By VICTOR EUBANK

NEW YORK, Jan. 11 (AP)—Sufficient buyers remained in the stock market today to put the overall average at a fifteen-year peak although fears of a technical reaction inspired profit realization and caused a number of pivots to stumble.

Transfers for the full proceedings totalled 2,260,000 shares compared with 2,470,000 Thursday.

The fact-finding board's recommendations for the General Motors strike settlement were more or less bullish as were the union-management negotiations of United States Steel. The feeling that a reconversion boom could get under way if widespread labor disputes are adjusted served as a bolstering influence.

Retaining improvement were United States Steel, Bethlehem, General Motors, Santa Fe, Southern Pacific, Northern Pacific, Graham-Paige, American Bosch, Montgomery Ward, Sears Roebuck, American and Foreign Power, Western Union, "A" American Can, Westinghouse, du Pont, Johns-Manville, Kennebunk and Allied Chemical.

On the outside were Republic Steel, Chrysler, Goodrich, Goodyear, Woolworth, United Aircraft, American Telephone, Consolidated Edison, American Water Works, Standard Oil (N.J.), Southern Railway and Baltimore and Ohio.

Gains in a somewhat spotty Curb included Gray Manufacturing, Divco (on split-up plan), Electric Band and Share and United States Fall "B." Turnover here was 1,058,000 shares versus 990,000 yesterday.

Thus signs predominated in most categories of the bond market today with rail issues leading the advance.

Sales totalled $9,450,000 compared with $9,010,000 Thursday. United States governments were higher with the 2's 59-54 up 1.25.

Scouts To Hold Annual Council Meeting Jan. 26

Institute Is Scheduled during Conference at Frostburg College

A Scouting Institute and the annual meeting of Potomac council, Boy Scouts of America, will be held at Frostburg State Teachers' college Saturday, January 26. Kenneth E. Jackson, executive director, announced yesterday.

The conference will open at 3 p.m. in the college assembly hall, when Jackson will outline the purposes of the meeting. Four groups of Scout leaders will then hold separate discussions regarding their respective work.

Discussions Set

Noel Obenshain, scoutmaster of Troop 34, Piedmont, W. Va., will lead the discussions of unit leaders and assistants. Harry Biggs, Westport, will preside during the discussion held by commissioners. James S. Thayer, Cumberland district commissioner, will lead unit committees in discussing their work, and Miles G. Thompson, district chairman of Cumberland, will head the district committees.

At 8:30 p.m. those attending the conference will have dinner in the college dining hall, after which the annual council meeting will be held in the assembly hall, with Dr. Frank U. Davis, president, presiding.

Officers To Be Named

Business to be handled includes the election of officers for the coming year, a report on last year's activities and future plans of the council. The meeting will be adjourned at 9 p.m.

Dr. John L. Dunkle, a member of the executive board of the council and former council president, is in charge of arrangements for the conference. Prof. Maurice Matteson, head of the college music department, will lead a group singing at the opening of the conference.

Tickets, including dinner, are $1 each, and may be secured from district chairmen, commissioners, or camping and activities chairmen. Tickets must be secured and reservations made by noon Tuesday, January 22.

Reservations may be made by contacting Jackson at the council office, 111 Union street. Reservations on tickets mailed direct to troop committee chairmen must be reported to the council office by Monday, January 21.

Four Persons Are Treated in Hospitals

Miss Irene O'Neal, 20, Bedford road, was treated in Allegany hospital yesterday morning after her right hand was caught in a car door. Attaches added that X-rays were taken to check on the possibility of a possible fracture of the index finger of the hand.

Ray Shanholz, 31, 802 Frost avenue, was treated yesterday in the same hospital for right chest injuries suffered, he told attaches, when he fell against a wall while working for the Tri-State Roofing Company.

Calvin Jackson, 41, negro, 28 Bedford street, was treated in Memorial hospital yesterday for possible chest injuries suffered when he was struck by a cable while loading equipment at the Ridgeley freight yards.

A. D. Gano, 38, 119 Oak street, was treated in Allegany hospital yesterday morning after his left thumb nail was torn off. The B. O. worker said the glove he was wearing was caught in a reamer.

Five Top Nazis

He pointed to Funk and Sauckel also. Kaltenbrunner was not in court because of a cranial hemorrhage.

The German defense attorneys questioned Blaha at length but he held to his story.

Dr. Blaha whose testimony at the Dachau trials led to the sentencing of forty officials and guards—thirty-six of whom received death sentences—was presented as a surprise witness after the prosecution completed cases against two top financers of the Nazi regime. Funk and Dr. Hjalmar Schacht.

Disagreement

The assembly without dissent also elected nations supported by the Big Five to chairmanships of the assembly's six committees. These chairmen, with President Paul Henri Spaak of Belgium and the vice presidents will form the Steering committee which will direct the assembly's work.

The nations upon which the five powers agreed for membership on the Social and Economic council informed sources said, were the five powers themselves and Australia, Canada, Iran, Turkey, Ukraine, Czechoslovakia, Netherlands, Norway, Peru, Cuba, Chile and Colombia. The sole disagreement in this proposal was that the Russians voiced some objections to naming four Latin-American nations, arguing that three would be enough, in-formants reported.

If under the final agreement one Latin-American nation is eliminated, there would be two places to fill; and there was a discussion that these vacancies would go to India and Yugoslavia, although definite agreement on that appeared uncertain.

News Censorship in China, Russia May End Soon, Foreign Editors Say

MIAMI, Fla., Jan. 11 (AP)—China and Russia, and other countries were listed today by top-flight foreign editors as the main areas in which censorship still blots out free flow of information.

But some of them saw indications that the shroud of official secrecy may soon be lifted, they told the Associated Press managing editors' convention.

"It is true," said Basil Walters, executive editor of the Chicago Daily News, "that the nations which have lost the war have not free press. But it is not true that all the nations who won the war had a free press. One of our great Allies, Russia, does not have a free press."

Capital Is Disappointed

WASHINGTON, Jan. 11 (AP)—Officials expressed disappointment tonight upon receipt of news that General Motors found a presidential board's recommendation for a seventeen and one-half per cent pay raise to its striking workers "not acceptable" and that steel wage negotiations had broken down.

GM's statement came as indications pointed to union acceptance of the board's recommendations made public Thursday.

The union has sought a thirty per cent increase and called out 175,000 production in an effort to enforce the demand.

Currently the drivers receive 87 cents an hour and are paid overtime when they work on their day off or for hours more than their regular shift. The length of shifts differ according to the various runs.

The union has been seeking a wage increase to $1.10 an hour. It claimed that negotiations had broken down in December and staged a two-day continuous meeting which was settled with the understanding that negotiations would resume.

The assembly accepting the big power recommendations, assigned its committee chairmanships to Ukraine, Poland, Panama, Uruguay, Syria and New Zealand.

Each of the six delegations will elect one of its members to all the posts and to serve ex-officio on the fourteen-member Steering committee which Cuba seeks to enlarge.

Scouts To Hold Annual Council Meeting Jan. 26

Institute Is Scheduled during Conference at Frostburg College

A Scouting's institute and the annual meeting of Potomac council, Boy Scouts of America, will be held at Frostburg State Teachers' college Saturday, January 26. Kenneth E. Jackson, executive director, announced yesterday.

The conference will open at 3 p.m. in the college assembly hall, when Jackson will outline the purposes of the meeting. Four groups of Scout leaders will then hold separate discussions regarding their respective work.

It is true," said Basil Walters, executive editor of the Chicago Daily News, "that the nations which have lost the war have no free press. But it is not true that all the nations who won the war had a free press. One of our great Allies, Russia, does not have a free press."

Walters declared that "in asking for freedom of the press, we're not asking a privilege for the newspapers. We're asking a safeguard for the public."

He disclosed that the American Society of Newspaper Editors is trying to make arrangements for three Russian editors to come to the United States next spring to see this country.

Walters credited Kent Cooper, executive director of the Associated Press, as "the man who started the free press movement throughout the world."

Alan Gould, assistant general manager of the Associated Press, declared he was confident the Soviet censorship would be lifted eventually. Glenn Babb, Associated Press foreign news editor, agreed there was Russian censorship, but said the Associated Press had been able to put correspondents in all the capitals of Europe, including those in the Russian sphere.

Gould said Soviet observers in this country have told him there is more doubt in Russia about the Americans than there is in this country about the Russians.

While listing China as one of the remaining areas under censorship, Babb said the controls were exercised more vigorously against the domestic Chinese newspapers than against foreign correspondents.

The creation of an assistant secretary of state for air to bolster United States leadership in international air transportation was urged by C. R. Smith, chairman of the board of American Airlines.

He said this country had come out of the war with the world's greatest air power "but air power is dynamic and ever-changing and the United States will retain world leadership only if we devote to the problems of peacetime the same meticulous attention and driving effort which brought us victory."

Officers To Be Named

Business to be handled includes the election of officers for the coming year, a report on last year's activities and future plans of the council. The meeting will be adjoined at 9 p.m. by Dr. Frank U. Davis, president, presiding.

Before entering the service in October, 1943, he was employed in the office of the warp knitting department at the Celanese plant for five years.

Mrs. Belfiore had been in ill health for a number of years. Her husband, a resident of Fairmont, W. Va., is employed as a glass blower in that city. She was a daughter of the late John Wharton.

Other sections of Maryland did not immediately report stoppages in telephone service. Union officials said yesterday that pickets had been sent to twenty-five Baltimore exchanges and nearby Baltimore county offices.

The start of picketing today was a reversal of plans announced a few hours earlier.

Ernest Weaver, president of the CWA, said at 11:20 o'clock last night that picketing would be delayed until Monday because of the meeting called by Schwelbeneck at 4:42 a.m. he said picketing would go ahead as planned because "picket lines had been established in some locations and it was impossible to contact them."

Service Tie-up at Baltimore

BALTIMORE, Jan. 11 (AP)—With an estimated 1,800 operators refusing to pass picket lines established by members of the striking Association of Communication Equipment Workers, Baltimore telephone service was at a virtual halt today.

The tie-up did not affect emergency calls and dial exchange systems.

MURRAY ASKS

Margaret C. Croken, president of the Maryland Telephone Traffic Union, comprising more than 3,300 operators, said that pickets had been sent to twenty-five Baltimore exchanges and nearby Baltimore county offices.

The union said there had been no discussion of steel price increases in his conferences with Fairless.

The steel industry has asked for price increases of approximately $7 a ton to cover what it said were cost increases aside from any proposed wage adjustment. Government officials have indicated a boost of $4 a ton would be approved.

Murray was asked if the steel workers would remain on their jobs if the government should take over the plants. He replied that he did not know what the government would do and that in his conferences with Fairless "we did not dwell on the results of if."

Aluminum Workers Strike

PITTSBURGH, Jan. 11 (AP)—A walkout by 4,500 workers of the Aluminum Company of America today—sixty hours in advance of the official opening of the steel strike—got under way while steel companies and union representatives made preparations for the expected shutdown Monday of a majority of the nation's steel mills.

The aluminum workers, who are affiliated with the steel union, quit work at New Kensington and Arnold, Pa., twenty-five miles from Pittsburgh, in a protest against shipment of steel to the company's Lafayette, Ind., plant. The steel union headquarters, which has cautioned its locals against premature work stoppages, termed the strike unauthorized.

John D. Small, director of the Office of Civilian Production, said a steel strike would be "a national calamity" but added, "I'm still hopeful that something can be done tomorrow."

Earlier in the day optimists had been just as apparent, with officials looking confidently for a settlement of the fifty-one-day strike of 175,000 CIO-United Auto Workers at General Motors next week on the recommended basis.

The nation upon which the five powers agreed for membership on the Social and Economic Council informed sources said were the five powers themselves and Australia, Canada, Iran, Turkey, Ukraine, Czechoslovakia, Netherlands, Norway, Peru, Cuba, Chile and Colombia. News Censorship in China, Russia May End Soon, Foreign Editors Say

MIAMI, Fla., Jan. 11 (AP)—China, Russia and Russian-dominated countries were listed today by top foreign editors as the main areas in which censorship still blots out free flow of information.

But some of them saw indications that the shroud of official secrecy may soon be lifted, they told the Associated Press managing editors' convention.

At Keyser

By LUKE McDOWELL

KEYSER, W. Va., Jan. 11.—The eighth Victory Loan Bond sale contest between the Rotarians of Keyser and Piedmont on one team and the Lions of Keyser and Luke on the other, closed Thursday night when a banquet to the contesting clubs was served by the ladies of Mount Olive Rebekah Lodge, in the I. O. O. F. Temple. There were 131 persons present.

The penalty for the losing club is the payment of the losing club's expense.

The amount of sales was kept secret, neither group knowing which would pay until a tabulation was made after the crowd assembled for the banquet. That tabulation showed the Rotarians as winners with sales approximating $28,000.

The contest was set up on a membership ratio basis; which gave the Lions a substantial "handicap" advantage. Yet with that advantage the Lions lost by approximately $3,000. Rotarian Edgell Grayson was high man in the contest, checking up personal sales amounting to $13,000.

Entertainment included vocal numbers by eight members from Bruce high school, Westerport.

The guest speaker was the Rev. Donald S. Brake, Middletown, Md., former governor of the Lions, Western district, Maryland. His theme was "Service Clubs Co-operating to Promote International Goodwill."

Victory Loan
Banquet Held
At Keyser

By LUKE McDOWELL

KEYSER, W. Va., Jan. 11.—The eighth Victory Loan Bond sale contest between the Rotarians of Keyser and Piedmont on one team and the Lions of Keyser and Luke on the other, closed Thursday night when a banquet to the contesting clubs was served by the ladies of Mount Olive Rebekah Lodge, in the I. O. O. F. Temple. There were 131 persons present.

The penalty for the losing club is the payment of the losing club's expense.

The amount of sales was kept secret, neither group knowing which would pay until a tabulation was made after the crowd assembled for the banquet. That tabulation showed the Rotarians as winners with sales approximating $28,000.

The contest was set up on a membership ratio basis; which gave the Lions a substantial "handicap" advantage.

Yet with that advantage the Lions lost by approximately $3,000. Rotarian Edgell Grayson was high man in the contest, checking up personal sales amounting to $13,000.

Entertainment included vocal numbers by eight members from Bruce high school, Westerport.

The guest speaker was the Rev. Donald S. Brake, Middletown, Md., former governor of the Lions, Western district, Maryland. His theme was "Service Clubs Co-operating to Promote International Goodwill."

Fort Hill Upsets LaSalle Quint, 31-26

Sentinels Snap Winning Streak Of City Rivals

Top Explorers First Time since 1941; Brown's Play Is Highlight

Port Hill's Sentinels flashed their best form of the season last night to defeat LaSalle high school's floor men for the first time since 1941 before a large turnout in SS Peter and Paul gymnasium. The score was 31 to 26.

It was not only the first win in five years for Coach Bobby Cavanaugh's boys over the Explorers but the victory shattered a nine-game losing streak which had trailed the Hilltoppers in the series with their city rivals.

Brown Turns Tide

The game was an erratic yet interesting one and the turning point came in late in the third quarter after the score had been knotted at 17-all. Johnny Brown, making his first appearance of the season in the Sentinels' lineup, took a long pass from Elmer Freeland to score the "sleeper" basket that unified the count and sent Port Hill out in front never to be headed again. Milford's Dean's field gave Cavanaugh's outfit a four point edge, 21-17, as the third period ended.

Freeland's "sleeper" and Brown's free throw gave the Sentinels a 24-17 lead early in the fourth stanza. Delaney and Cox scored fielders and Cox hooped a shot at the charity line to make it 27-19. Jack Steiner, LaSalle's scoring ace, registered his lone field goal at this point and shortly after went out of the game on personal fouls. Cox hooped a shot at the foul line, Cloonan grabbed a loose ball and caged a fielder and Brown contributed a field and foul goal, increasing the score to 31-23 two minutes before the final whistle.

LaSalle made three points in the closing minutes on Mattingly's free throw and Snyder's field goal on a pretty corner shot.

Explorers Blanked from Field

Coach Keegan's warriors failed to score from the field in the first ten-minute quarter. In fact, the Explorers played twelve minutes before Harry Hart dumped in a double-decker on a set shot. The first quarter ended with Port Hill in command, 7-4.

The Sentinels stayed out in front in the second quarter until Tommy Cloonan's goal knotted the count at 11-11 and Collins' basket put the Explorers ahead shortly thereafter. LaSalle held a 16-12 edge at the half time whistle.

The Hilltoppers outscored LaSalle ten goals to nine and hooped 11 out of 21 foul shots while the losers connected eight times in fourteen tries.

Johnny Brown Stars

Brown's all-around play featured for the Sentinels. He matched Freeland and Cox in the matter of points scored—the trio getting eight—and played a brilliant floor game. Steiner was limited to five points, three of which came on free throws. He and Tommy Carroll were banished on fouls in the final period.

The officials—Eck Miers and Clifton Van Roby called sixteen personal fouls on LaSalle and thirteen on the visitors.

In the preliminary game Fort Hill's Reserves defeated the LaSalle Reserves, 33-26. The lineups:

Nelson Is Leader By Four Strokes In Frisco Golf

Byron Has 36-Hole Total of 143 at Halfway Mark in Tourney

By RUSS NEWLAND

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 11 (P)—This is getting to be routine stuff but defending champion Byron Nelson, greatest money winner in the history of golf, was leading the parade today when the outstanding field of links stars passed the halfway mark of the 72-hole San Francisco open tournament.

In the game at Westport, the up-creek team battled to a 37-37 deadlock in the regulation game but in the four-minute overtime session the Mountain City quintet disposed of Barton high school at the latter place, 31 to 35, last night in Western Maryland Interscholastic League contests.

Lord Byron, racing for his third successive win in the annual local event, posted a one-under par 70 today for a 36-hole total of 143. It gave him a four shot bulge over his closest rivals—Chandler Harper, Portsmouth, Va., and George Schmitt, Salt Lake City—tied at 147.

The quarter scores were 10-6 21-19 and 31-28 with Beall holding the edge throughout.

After jumping off to a 20-4 lead at the quarter, Allegany's reserves began to go into action and before the game was concluded a total of fourteen visiting players were used.

High scoring honors went to Warren, Barton guard, who pitched in fourteen tallies.

Quarter scores were 20-4, 27-12 and 40-20, all in favor of the team.

In the prelim First Presbyterian cagers of the Cumberland Sunday School League, defeated the Barton Reserves, 23 to 20. Ned Clifton led the winners to the hoop with nine points to his credit. The lineups:

Commissioners Adopt 3-Year Road Program

County Will Receive Approximately $38,000 Yearly as Result of Hayden Bill

Several returning physicians and dentists admitted yesterday that they are having what one dentist termed "one h— of a time" getting office space after their long tours of duty in foreign countries.

As Carsaden has stated, the Hayden bill will enable Allegany county to receive approximately $38,000 yearly. These funds will be matched, dollar for dollar, by the county, providing approximately $76,000, including the county funds, yearly.

In the event the money allocated is not sufficient to cover the construction costs of the roads embodied in any one year's program, the same will carry through to the next year's program, with the No. 1 priority moving back to the succeeding year's program, one number in the program.

Projects Listed

Projects listed by Carsaden, rated according to priority, for the first year of the proposed plan are:

PRIORITY NO. 1—The Mill Run road—one and a half miles from Old State Route 36 to the Garrett county line. State symbol 31—tertiary. Rebuilding and relocation of existing road, consisting of grading, draining, relocation of stream, six inch compacted stone base, sixteen feet wide, same to be choked with limestone screenings or dust, with a two inch wearing surface of either Maryland specification "C" blacktop or a two inch road mix. This road is to remain in the county system.

PRIORITY NO. 2—Vocke road, runs 85 miles from State Route 49 at Allegany Grove to State Route 53 at Winchester bridge. State Symbol 8. Primary. Reconstruction to state standards for acceptance into the state system as a state road.

PRIORITY NO. 3—North Branch Crossing elimination. A total of 65 miles of new road, elimination of two railroad crossings over the B. and O. railroad. This project embodies the construction of one thirty foot span H-15 bridge, grading, drainage, four inch compacted stone base and two inch penetration macadam wearing surface.

Commenting on this project, Carsaden said, "I feel that the B. and O. Railroad Company will be willing to bear part of the county cost of this construction, due to the elimination of the two crossings. If such is not the case, this project will lose all priority. In case of construction, this road will remain in the county system."

Second Year Program

The program for the second year under the plan includes:

PRIORITY NO. 1—Midlothian road. One and a half miles from Frostburg to Midlothian. State symbol 4. Primary. Rebuilding present road on existing location, scarifying existing surface, grading to uniform grades, leveling existing base where possible, new six inch compacted stone base where necessary, two inch wearing surface over the entire road to bring this new and existing surface to a uniform grade and contour. This road will remain in the county system.

PRIORITY NO. 2—Williams road. One and a half miles from end of State Route 52, east one and a half miles. State symbol 1. Primary. Reconstruction to meet the state roads commission standards for acceptance.

Third Year Program

Construction during the third year of the postwar plan will include construction of various bridges in the county to H-15 loading and standard requirement widths. Carsaden has not as yet announced the names and locations of the various construction projects planned.

Nylon Hose Figure in Divorce Granted to Mrs. Helen Brown

A 39-year-old Lafayette avenue woman who said among other things, that her husband brought home a pair of nylon stockings, which were not her size, and left them on the refrigerator, yesterday was awarded an absolute divorce in court.

The case was docketed by Mrs. Helen Powell Brown, 1025 Lafayette avenue, against Charles Edward Brown. According to the bill filed by Paul M. Fletcher, the couple were married in 1931 and had separated before several times.

But this time it was going to be good, Mrs. Brown said, who barged her husband with carrying in and said she found a picture in his pocket showing him kissing an unidentified woman.

Other Decrees Granted

Then he brought home the nylons, which were not her size, and left them on the refrigerator and took them elsewhere, she said. Asked if she inquired as to what her husband did with the nylons, Mrs. Brown said that she did and that her husband told her "I bought them for a brakeman friend of mine."

In another divorce awarded yesterday, Mrs. Mary S. Light, 28, 302 Magruder street, was freed by the court from William E. Light and given the right to resume her maiden name of Sullivan. They were married in 1940 in Virginia and separated in 1944. Julius E. Schindler was her attorney.

Mrs. Genevieve E. Goff, 33, 26 Long street, was awarded a divorce from Wills A. Goff. Southern Hotel

Dornon's Death To Be Probed By Grand Jury

Preliminary Hearing Will Not Be Held, Prosecuting Attorney Says

Prosecuting Attorney Vernon E. Rankin of Mineral county, W. Va., said last night that there will be no preliminary hearing before the case of the two men charged with the murder of Police Chief Charles E. Dornon, Piedmont, is presented to the grand jury next Tuesday.

Both Rankin and Edward J. Ryan, attorney for Alvin Pazenbaker, 23, and Russell H. Michael, 26, Westemport, said last night that the two ex-servicemen would wave extradition and be taken to West Virginia either Monday or Tuesday.

The boys said they shot the octopuses with a small rifle and threw back a third 15-pounder.

What had them doing mental figure-of-eights were some creatures closely resembling the eight-tentacled octopus of the deep.

They wondered:

1) Were the creatures really octopuses?

2) If so, what were they doing in Blackwater river, a turbulent mountain stream, far removed from their usual ocean habitat?

It all started when some schoolboys brought in two of the critters, with tentacles about two and a half feet long.

The boys said they shot the octopuses with a small rifle and threw back a third 15-pounder.

Rankin last night reiterated his statement of Thursday that he would not divulge the report of the autopsy performed on Chief Dornon until he presents his case to the grand jury and later in court.
